IRISH ARISTOCRATS GOING INTO FILMS

LONDON, Feb. 11—Two young aristocrats are going to California to seek fame in the film world. They are Captain Visney A. Davoren, "The O'Davoren," an Irishman who claims to be a descendant on his mother's side from the great duke of Wellington, and on his father's side from Irish kings; and Elliot Gordon, nephew of an earl and heir to big estates in Hertfordshire. Both have already played in films here.

CHEWING GUM FAD REACHES EUROPE

(Correspondence Associated Press)

MADRID, Feb. 9.—The young society girls and youths of Madrid have taken to the American habit of chewing gum and their elders have been much exercised as a result. That staid conservative journal, the A. B. C., devoted recently a column to this new practice which it denounced in strong terms.

According to the writer of this article, gum chewing is the result of reading articles by Spanish writers who have recently visited America and to the American pictures produced in the Spanish cinema theatres.

The police bureau of the home affairs department has instructed prefectural police chiefs to restrict suffrage agitation, the Hoch's correspondent adds.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE SPREADS IN JAPAN

(Correspondence Associated Press)

HONOLULU, T. H., Feb. 1.—The movement recently launched in Tokyo by university students for universal suffrage in Japan has spread to all parts of the country and to Korea and Manchuria as well according to Tokio advices to the Hawaii Hoch's local Japanese branch.

In attempting to fix the compensation to Count Hohenlohe for that part of his private property taken over by the state, the authorities have experienced difficulty in deciding what part belonged to the crown and how much was strictly private.

The difficulty arose in part from the fact that the appraisers have had to inventory properties which have been accumulating for five centuries.

The settlement will be dictated, it is stated, by a decree to offer to the Hohenlohe a numerous adjustment. Their compensation is said to have been obtained in the fall of the Prussian diet to pay the former emperor 100,000,000 marks for property taken and permit him to retain a number of castles and estates and personal property.

TRACES ESTATE FOR 500 YEARS

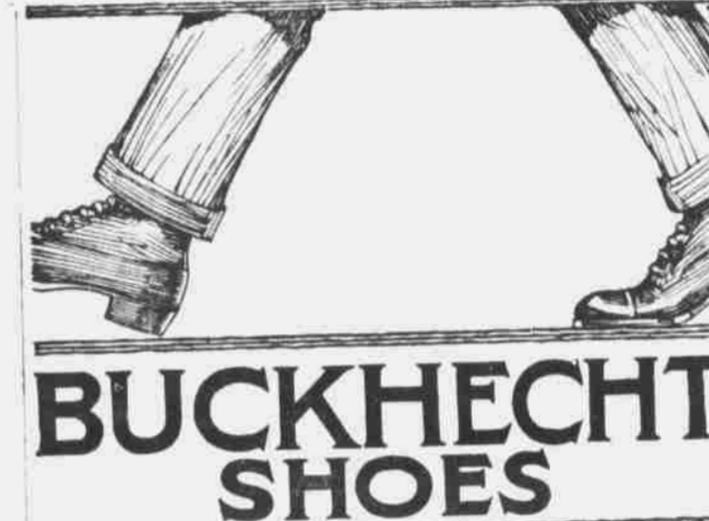

(Correspondence Associated Press)

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—The value of the estates which belonged to the former German emperor and his family may reach 1,000,000,000 marks.

The police bureau of the home affairs department has instructed prefectural police chiefs to restrict suffrage agitation, the Hoch's correspondent adds.

SOLEMN RITUAL ORDER OF BATH

(Correspondence Associated Press)

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A solemn installation of Knights Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath will take place with all the usual ceremony in the Henry VII chapel of Westminster Abbey during May, says the Express.

The chapter holds its annual meeting the day before the king's coronation every year and was to be of magnificent splendor, but passed only by a coronation service.

An outdoor procession from the prince's chamber to the house of lords, where the knights and commanders put on their crimson robes and white plumes, to the abbey will be followed by a complete procession and a rendering of the Te Deum. The solemn bath ceremonies are the chief, include the intonation of their swords by the knights about to be installed, the actual installation by the sovereign as grand master, and the taking of the solemn oath of the order.

SCHOLARSHIPS COMING HIGHER

(Correspondence Associated Press)

OXFORD, Jan. 10.—Applications for Rhodes scholarships at Oxford universities will have to make an extra £50 yearly, as well as meet the proposed standard of academic ability, since the £350 stipend no longer suffices to cover the expenses of a student's education.
